

SERIO'S

RESTAURANT

Original Serio's Restaurant

In November of 1943, Salvo Serio established the original Serio's, located at the corner of Mississippi Avenue and Alabama Street, and operated the restaurant continuously until his retirement in the 1970's. Salvo served his family's authentic Italian pasta dishes but Serio's was also known for its steaks, seafood and sandwiches, including Serio's signature Open Face Meatball Sandwich, commonly referred to as an OFMBS.

Salvo's great nephew and Serio's co-owner, Frank Leflore, is carrying on the Serio's tradition by offering many of the Serio's originals while also serving other long-time family favorites. Serio's honors Uncle Salvo's legacy and family heritage by offering the same authentic Italian cuisine that Serio's was known for and served from the time it opened in 1943. Welcome to Serio's, a family tradition.
